PASTOR'S CORNER

The Year for Priests ended officially with the feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus on June 11th. At the conclusion of the Year, the head of the Congregation for the Clergy, Cardinal Hummes, wrote, "The Year for Priests brings great joy to the Church and she thanks the Lord for having inspired the Holy Father to announce it . . . It was a time to give special attention, acknowledgement and commitment to the great, hardworking and irreplaceable presbyterium, and to each individual priest of the Church."

Once again I would like to thank all of you for your prayers and support for me personally, and your prayers for all priests and vocations. I recently came across this quote from Fulton Sheen, which should inspire all of us to continue these prayers:

"The original Greek word (ekballo) for sending labourers into the fields . . . means that the Lord of the harvest would thrust them out, or propel them forward . . . it takes great power to drive the priesthood into a man. This power Our Lord said He would exercise, if we prayed. It even suggests that from totally unexpected and impossible places, He would inspire vocations" (The Priest is Not His Own, 83). If I am a priest today, it is thanks to the mercy of God and the prayers of many people. Let us continue to beg the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into the harvest, especially in the Church in Ottawa.

In Christ, Fr. Tim
