Dear brothers and sisters in the Lord:

As this liturgical year draws to a close with the feast in honour of Our Lord, King of the Universe, I invite you to celebrate the grace and peace He offers us in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

The theme of this Pastoral Year, which notes the 2000th anniversary of St. Paul's birth, is "Be reconciled to God" taken from his second epistle to the Corinthians(5:20). In confession, we are blessed with healing from the wounds of sin and division, and are offered a future full of hope.

The Son of Man who will come in glory at the end of time meets us in the Sacrament of Penance to continue the transformation of our inner being begun in baptism. My wish is that each of you may experience this joy so profoundly that it overflows into your dealings with others and they, in turn, are drawn to Christ.

Devotedly yours in Christ,
Terrence Prendergast, S.J.
