PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This weekend we welcome Fr. Dennis Hayes, former pastor, back to our parish. I am away this weekend on holiday, visiting my cousins in Brooklyn, NY, as well as visiting the parish where I was received into the Catholic Church 15 years ago. It is always amazing to look back on the guidance of the Holy Spirit in our lives!

On the topic of the Holy Spirit, I would like to share with you some of the highlights of a talk given recently to the priests of Ottawa by Bishop Lacroix, auxiliary bishop of Quebec City. He witnessed to the transforming power of the Holy Spirit, working through the Word of God and small Christian communities. He has seen real miracles of transformation as a child, with his own mother and father, in his missionary work in Columbia, and slowly but surely in his home province of Quebec.

Much of the success of the Spirit-inspired new ecclesial communities rests on sharing the Word of God in small Christian communities. I am wondering if it would not be possible in the parish to begin with a small group meeting once a week for "lectio divina" (sacred reading), a meditative reading and sharing of the Scriptures for the upcoming Sunday. These simple gatherings would help us better enter into and appreciate the Sunday Eucharist, strengthen our faith by sharing in small groups, and also be a means of evangelization and on-going Christian formation, as we could invite non-practicing friends and neighbours to these small Christian communities. Let us pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit!

In Christ, Fr. Tim
