PASTOR'S CORNER

On this THANKSGIVING WEEKEND, we do well to call to mind gratitude for all God's gifts. In each Eucharist, we say, "It is right to give Him thanks and praise." Yes! We do well always and everywhere to give thanks to God. Sometimes in life, everything seems difficult; each day is a struggle. The last thing we feel like doing is thanking God. But at such times we need to rouse ourselves to thanksgiving! It liberates us from our self-centeredness, and any tendency toward self-pity. In every effort we make to thank and praise God (especially when we don't feel like it), the Holy Spirit will assist us and we will experience an increase in God's grace and His life in us.

I recently heard a talk to all the youth participating in NET this year (National Evangelization Teams). The speaker reminded everyone to cultivate an "attitude of gratitude" and even to write one's own "litany of thanksgiving," a personal list in which we write, "I am grateful for ____." It's a simple practice that can deepen our gratitude this Thanksgiving.

As we enjoy the fruits of the harvest - our Thanksgiving food - let us thank our Creator who shows us such love in blessing our land with sun and rain to provide a good harvest (and bless our farmers too!). And we thank Him for sending us His Son Jesus Christ, for the Church, for our faith, for our family and friends - the list goes on and on!

In Christ, Fr. Tim

Susan McCooney-Larivee, Warren Hamm, Nancy McDonald, Brynn MacKinnon, Brenda Henke, Monica Baker, Gilles Gauthier, Justin Collins, and Justin McKenna

Our Lady of the Rosary

Through his Holy Prophets (GOD) promised of old that he would save us from our enemies, from the hands of all who hate us.--Luke 1:70-71--

The most amazing rosary I've ever seen is preserved under glass at St. Alphonsus Church in Baltimore. It was handmade by a prisoner in Siberia who saved breadcrumbs from her meals and moistened them to fashion the beads and the cross. She used strands of her hair to string them together. Praying this rosary enabled her to maintain the will to live and hope for the future. This story may seem fantastic, but I know many people whose lives have been held together with rosary beads.
