PASTORS CORNER

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I would like to give you an update on our parish sponsorship of children in HONDURAS. Last week I transferred $2060.96 to Honduras: $1000 from our raffle and a $1060.96, a donation from St. Thomas Aquinas High School, from the proceeds of a "dress-down" day. This exceptional donation from the school and the students, along with the raffle, are helping to sponsor the 6 children who "lost" their sponsors and were waiting for someone else to "adopt" them. These children, and the God of the poor, thank you!

Our mission trip has been delayed. Mark Lalonde and I are now planning to visit Padre Patricio and his schools during the third week of May. Please pray for us in our planning, and for our poor brothers and sisters throughout the world. In Christ, Fr. Tim

DID YOU sponsor a child in Honduras? There are cards from the children in Honduras for some of the families that have sponsored children. Please check the foyer for your name on an envelope.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION: (First Communion and Confirmation) will be starting on Feb 22 at the parish. To register your child, please communicate with Stephanie Montojo 613-443-3230 before February 15.

CONFIRMATION: Archbishop Prendergast will celebrate Confirmation on Trinity Sunday, June 19 for children grades 6-8. The celebration takes place at the noon Mass at Notre Dame Cathedral. All candidates will have registered at OLMM and will have received the appropriate preparation at our Parish.

February 8th- True Myth: the Catholic Imagination of J.R.R. Tolkien by Aldean Hendrickson, Graduate Student, St. Paul University

"J.R.R. Tolkien is known the world over for his sweeping, genre-founding works of fantasy. Less obvious, however, is the author's fervent Catholic faith, which does not hide behind his work, but thoroughly suffuses it from first to last. Join Aldean Hendrickson as he shares about the Catholic faith of one of the world's best loved authors."
