PASTOR'S CORNER

On this feast of Pentecost we do well to remember that the Holy Spirit, often the most neglected Person of the Holy Trinity, is indeed a Person with whom we can have a relationship. In his book Your Life in the Holy Spirit, Alan Schreck calls to mind various Scriptural titles for the Spirit – breath, wind, water, fire, cloud, gift, oil – but emphasize that Jesus speaks explicitly of the Spirit as a Person, as the Paraclete or Counselor.

He suggests "a personal image of the Holy Spirit that embodies all that he is and does for us: the Holy Spirit is 'the friend closest to our hearts.'"

He adds that the Holy Spirit "is a sort of second Emmanuel – 'God with us' – but even more profoundly, God within us. As St. Paul puts it, we actually become "temples of the Holy Spirit" where God resides and abides" (p. 15-23).

Let us frequently invoke His Presence with the simple prayer, "Come Holy Spirit." Let us ask him to help us surrender our lives to Jesus, to receive the gifts of the Spirit, and to be sent on mission by the Spirit, to share the Good News of Jesus Christ with our friends and neighbours.

In Christ, Fr. Tim
