PASTOR'S CORNER

St Paul in the second reading reminds us that each and every one of us by virtue of the ascension of Jesus Christ is called to a hope. And what is that hope? It is the realisation that we are called to share in the divinity of Christ; to share the very life of God. It is the assurance that where Christ, the head, has gone, we the body will follow. Right now Jesus is exulted at the right of the Father, we are going to be there with him!

Called to be Missionaries

"Why do you stand looking up to heaven?" the Angels asked the disciples. In other word, they should go back to Jerusalem to continue the work Christ had entrusted to them. Similarly, we come to church to praise and worship God but we don't stand here all day looking up to heaven, we leave this place to witness to Christ in the world by our actions. Jesus is counting on you! As Teresa of Avila would put it: "Christ has no body now on earth but yours, no hands but yours, no feet but yours; yours are the eyes through which he is to look out to the world with compassion; yours are the feet with which he is to go about doing good, and yours are the hands with which he is to bless us now."

Congratulations

To Bep Versteeg, a member of the parish who recently received the CWL Bellelle Guerin award for her outstanding service to the League both at the parish and diocesan levels. And a special welcome to Fr. Paul Varuvel of the diocese of Kottar, India who will be speaking to us this weekend on the missionary work going on in his diocese.

May the risen and ascended Lord continue to strengthen us in our efforts to do His will!

Fr. Paul
