PASTOR'S CORNER

On this great feast of Pentecost which is also the birthday of the Church, I would like to share with you an excerpt from our Holy Father's reflection on Pentecost Sunday at St. Peter's Basilica in 2009. The Holy Father said inter alia:

"The Holy Spirit overcomes fear. We know that the disciples sought shelter in the Upper Room after the arrest of their Lord and that they had remained isolated for fear of suffering the same fate. After Jesus' Resurrection their fear was not suddenly dispelled. But here at Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit rested upon them, those men emerged fearless and began to proclaim the Good News of the Crucified and Risen Christ to all. They were not afraid because they felt they were in the hands of the strongest One.

Yes, dear brothers and sisters, wherever the Spirit of God enters he puts fear to flight; he makes us know and feel that we are in the hands of an Omnipotence of love: something happens, his infinite love does not abandon us. It is demonstrated by the witness of martyrs, by the courage of confessors of the faith, by the undaunted zeal of missionaries, by the frankness of preachers, by the example of all the saints, even some who were adolescents and children.

It is demonstrated by the very existence of the Church which, despite the limitations and sins of men and women, continues to cross the ocean of history, blown by the breath of God and enlivened by his purifying fire. With this faith and joyful hope let us repeat today, through the intercession of Mary:

"Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth".

My dear friends, the Spirit of God has been poured into our hearts, each and every one of us! May we come to know and grow always in the Spirit, and may we allow Him to use us as instruments of peace and reconciliation in our world.
