PASTOR'S CORNER

Since this edition of the bulletin will be for the month of July, I shall try and give a brief reflection on each of the gospel themes for the five Sundays therein.

13th Sunday – July 1st

The two great miracles performed by Jesus in today's gospel are powerful signs that even in our own time God is still interested in us. When the woman in the gospel touched Jesus, he quickly noticed that power had gone forth from him! Jesus is quick to identify with those who suffer. Suffering and sickness touches his heart in a profound way.

14th Sunday – July 8th

Jesus is rejected by his own people. They may have found him too ordinary. "Is not this the carpenter?" They lacked faith not only in Jesus but also in themselves so much that apart from healing a few who were sick, "he could do no deed of power there." What about us? Don't we take Jesus for granted some times? Don't we ignore him or tend to explain away his teaching especially the need to love and care for one another?

15th Sunday – July 15th

Jesus calls and sends out his apostles to share in his work of teaching and healing. Albeit the bishops are the direct successors of the apostles with the priests as their collaborators, but all of us by virtue of our baptism are called to serve and comfort anyone in need. Whatsoever you do to the least of my brothers and sisters, says the Lord, that you do unto me!

16th Sunday – July 22nd

Shepherding is the theme of today's mass. Through the prophet Jeremiah God warns the bad shepherds and then promises a good and wise shepherd – Jesus Christ. Jesus the Good shepherd cares for us; leads and feeds us with his word and sacraments. Now we are that crowd on whom he continues to take pity. Jesus never gives up on any of us!

17th Sunday – July 29th

Today we reflect on the most important of Jesus' miracles. I believe Jesus performed this great sign to prepare his hearers for his great teaching on the Eucharist. Jesus gave us the Eucharist first and foremost to satisfy our hunger for God and also to unite us, his mystical body. May we always hunger for Jesus the bread of life!

As we come to the end of the pastoral year and as we enter the summer, I would like to thank our many volunteers and the various committees and ministry heads whose dedicated efforts made the dynamic life of our parish possible. Your gifts of time and talent are greatly appreciated. I especially thank the temporal affairs and pastoral councils for their invaluable contributions to the leadership of our parish. In a special way, I thank immensely the outgoing pastoral council chair, Allison Fortier, for ably piloting the affairs of the PPC and to the incoming chair, Sherry Desmarais, I say welcome and look forward to working with you!

May God bless us all!

Fr. Paul
