WELCOME! If you have not yet registered, please complete a registration form found in the foyer or in the office. You may bring the completed form to the office or drop it in the collection basket.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Life is empty and meaningless, unless we turn to God and follow in His ways!

Our Priorities

Today we are invited to take a second look at our life priorities. The first reading and gospel contain a terrible warning about what can happen to a man or woman whose life priorities are upside down, about the frustration and despair of any person who places material success ahead of God in his or her life. We make mistakes in life, Yes, but the worst mistake is to see or measure the world and life in terms of what one possesses.

A Question

What are your life priorities and where does God come in the picture, at the centre of your life or on the fringes?

Living for Others

The rich fool's greatest undoing is his failure to acknowledge, according to Martin Luther King Jr., that wealth always comes as a result of the commonwealth. He was a fool because he completely failed to realize his dependence on God and on others. In contrast to the rich fool, Jesus was and still is a man for others; He lived and died for others and hopes that his own disciples would follow in his footsteps. Like Jesus, what we own, we owe. The joy of having is in sharing!

Thank You

A very special thanks to our Knights of Columbus, who always do such great work for our parish. With their help our church floor is now wearing a new and superb look thereby saving this parish thousands of dollars. We thank in particular J.P Vincellette, Paul Chenard, Ken Doyle, Leo Bekkers, Robert Desmarais and those who worked behind the scenes, Donna Mcklusky and co. This is love in action! Your precious gift of time, talent and ability are greatly appreciated by this parish. May God reward you superabundantly both here and hereafter. May God continue to fill us with his blessings!

Fr Paul
