Pastor's Corner

God calls us to be happy not merely in a passing way in this life, but forever in His heavenly kingdom so as to enjoy the fullness of life.

In today's gospel Jesus compares heaven to a great banquet. We have been invited to this great banquet. We believe that Christ has gone to prepare a place for us in heaven. The best expression of our faith in heaven can be made in the Eucharist.

The Mass

The mass is God's greatest gift to us for which we should be very thankful! The mass reminds us of our great worth in the eyes of God and of Jesus. The mass tells us clearly that God is all loving and that each of us is worth loving. The mass likewise challenges us to go into the world to share the good news and be witnesses of the great love of God revealed in Jesus Christ.

Giving Thanks

On this thanksgiving weekend, we are reminded of God's immense love and goodness to us as individuals and as a family. With King David we cry out: "How can I repay the Lord for His goodness to me?" (Ps. 116). We are pretty lucky and have so much to be thankful for: the gift of life, health, food on our table, our family, our parish, our country, Canada, "strong and free" and above all God's gift of His only son, Jesus Christ in the Eucharist! These are great signs of God's extravagant love and goodness to us! It is, therefore, right and fitting to give thanks to God! We do this by continuously seeking His face and to be mindful of the less privileged in our midst. May God's generosity to us encourage us to reach out to those in need.

Have a great week!

Fr. Paul

Holy Family of Nazareth, may families never again experience violence, rejection and division: may all who have been hurt or scandalized find ready comfort and healing.
