Pope's prayer intentions for November 2014:

That all who suffer loneliness may experience the closeness of God and the support of others. That young seminarians and religious may have wise and well-formed mentors.

Pastor's Corner

Last Sunday was All Souls' Day and the celebration took precedence over the Sunday liturgy, and today the Feast of the Dedication of the St. John Lateral Basilica, the Pope's Cathedral, takes precedence over the Sunday of the Ordinary time.

Here is what our Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI has to say about today's feast during his Angelus address on November 9, 2008 at St. Peter's Square, Rome.

"The liturgy today has us celebrate the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica, called the "mother and head of all the Churches of the Urbe and Orbe". Actually, this Basilica was the first to be built after the Edict of the Emperor Constantine who, in 313, conceded to Christians the freedom to practice their religion. The same Emperor gave Pope Miltiades the ancient estate of the Laterani family and had the Basilica, the Baptistry and the Patriarchate built for him, the latter being the Bishop of Rome's residence, where Popes resided until the Avignon era.

"The Word of God during this Solemnity recalls an essential truth: the stone temple is the symbol of the living Church, the Christian community, that the Apostles Peter and Paul had, in their Letters, already understood as a "spiritual building", constructed by God with the "living stones" that are the Christians, upon the one foundation that is Jesus Christ, who is in turn compared to the "cornerstone" cf. 1 Cor 3: 9-11, 16-17; 1 Pt 2: 4-8; Eph 2: 20-22). "Brethren,... you are God's building", St Paul writes, and he adds, "God's temple is holy, and you are that temple" (1 Cor 3: 9c, 17).

Dear friends, today's feast celebrates an ever current mystery: that God desires to build himself a spiritual temple in the world, a community that adores him in spirit and truth (cf. Jn 4: 23-24). But this occasion reminds us also of the importance of the concrete buildings in which the community gathers together to celebrate God's praises. Every community therefore, has the duty to carefully guard their holy structures, which constitute a precious religious and historical patrimony.
For this we invoke the intercession of Mary Most Holy, so that she might help us to become, like her, a "house of God, a living temple of his love."

Peace to all!

Fr. Paul
