Pope's prayer intentions for November 2014:

That all who suffer loneliness may experience the closeness of God and the support of others. That young seminarians and religious may have wise and well-formed mentors.

Today, the last Sunday of the liturgical year, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Christ, King of the Universe. Today the church invites us to celebrate Jesus as the King of the universe and most importantly, the King and Centre of our hearts. The challenge before us today is to be able to recognize Christ in the less fortunate among us. By recognizing Jesus in the poor and needy, we become part of His kingdom.

Mother Teresa

When we try to think of people who have responded to this invitation in a radical manner, we think of Blessed Mother Teresa who became famous by helping the poor and destitute people living in the slums of Calcutta. Mother Teresa's extraordinary acts of charity were motivated by her conviction that Christ lives in each and every human person especially the poor and the suffering. She stated that love, humanity and helping others selflessly were her reasons to live on earth and today she enjoys a place of pride in the Kingdom of her Master!

Heirs of the Kingdom

Through baptism, we become members and heirs of His Kingdom. If Jesus is indeed our king, we have to pay attention to His words and respond to them not just with pious thoughts but with deeds. In other words, Jesus will never be king of our hearts unless we show mercy and compassion to the needy and less privileged.
The conclusion is obvious: it is not possible to be committed to Christ without being committed to the least of His brothers and sisters. Furthermore, as members of His Kingdom, it is our responsibility to make His Kingdom known in the world – not a kingdom of political power obtained through weapons and violence, but a Kingdom of truth, justice, love and peace!

May our minds and hearts be open to the teaching of Christ our King!

Have a great week!

Fr. Paul
