In today's gospel, Jesus uses the imagery of seeds to give us an idea of how the kingdom of God is to mature and grow. As Christians, we are called to be part of His kingdom: to build and sustain it by our acts of faith, hope and charity.

Speaking in Parables

Jesus is a great teacher, one who teaches with authority (Mk. 1:22). As a peerless teacher, He uses parables and stories to teach us who God is and how much he loves us. Jesus' use of parables is not to confound us, rather to enable us to pay great attention and to have the desire to be with Him always. Really to understand stories, we have to be with the one who is telling them. Only when we walk closely with Jesus, the teacher, and receive His words with eager openness can we truly be called His disciples.

Ordination to the Sacred Priesthood

Thanks be to God, come Friday, June 19, 2015, our brother and friend, Rev. Gerard Plant will be ordained a priest of God by Archbishop Prendergast! The ordination will take place at Notre Dame Cathedral at 7:30 pm. Please mark your calendars. How wonderful if we all show up to witness this epoch-making event! Rev. Gerard will be celebrating his first holy mass here in our parish on Sunday, June 21, 2015 at 10:45 am. Please keep him and his family in your prayers.

May we all be richly blessed as we strive to do the will of God!

Have a good week.

Fr. Paul

INTENTIONS OF THE HOLY FATHER FOR JUNE: That immigrants and refugees may find welcome and respect in the countries to which they come. That the personal encounter with Jesus may arouse in many young people the desire to offer their own lives in the priesthood or consecrated life.
