INTENTIONS OF THE HOLY FATHER FOR OCTOBER:

That opportunities for education and employment may increase for all young people. That catechists may give witness by living in a way consistent with the faith they proclaim.

The young man in the gospel had the desire to follow Christ but unfortunately was not willing to give up his possessions. Jesus loved him so much as much as He loves each and every one of us. And just like the young man, He invites us to follow Him, to imitate His love so that we may enjoy the fullness of life which He alone can give.

Happiness versus Wealth

Happiness does not come from wealth. Money can't buy happiness. Rather happiness consists of interior detachment and honest, sincere search for the love of Christ. Blessed John Paul II puts it beautifully thus: "If you wish to talk to Christ and to accept all the truth of His testimony, you must on the one hand 'love the world' – for God 'so loved the world that He gave His only son' (Jn 3:16) – and at the same time you must acquire interior detachment with regard to all this rich and fascinating reality that makes up 'the world.'" True happiness comes when we acknowledge our need for God and are willing to 'sell' every other thing.

Thanksgiving

On this thanksgiving weekend, we are reminded of God's immense love and goodness to us as individuals and as a family. We are pretty lucky and have so much to be thankful for: the gift of life, health, food on our table, our family, our parish, our country, Canada, "strong and free" and above all God's gift of His only son, Jesus Christ in the Eucharist! These are great signs of God's extravagant love and goodness to us! It is, therefore, right and fitting to give thanks to God! We do this by continuously seeking His face and to be mindful of the less privileged in our midst.

May God's generosity to us encourage us to reach out to those in need!

Peace to all!

Fr. Paul

October Devotion

In keeping with our Catholic Tradition, the month of October is dedicated to Our lady of the Holy Rosary. The best way to celebrate the month is to pray the Rosary daily and other Marian devotions. Let us pray for our protection and that of our loved ones and for peace in our world through the intercession of the Mother of God.

OLMM Spiritual Library

Please check out the new adult DVDs in the Library. They can be borrowed for a period of two weeks

There will be a special collection for Evangelization of the Nations at all Masses next weekend.
