Intentions of the Holy Father for December 2022

Volunteer Not-for-Profit Organizations

We pray that volunteer non-profit organizations committed to human development find people dedicated to the common good and ceaselessly seek out new paths to international cooperation.

Intentions of the Holy Father for January 2023

For Educators

We pray that educators may be credible witnesses, teaching fraternity rather than competition and helping the youngest and most vulnerable above all.

A SPECIAL THANK-YOU to everyone who donated for the Christmas flowers in memory of a loved one. It has enabled us to make our church so very beautiful for this Christmas season.

The Archbishop's Message

Please do take time to read the Archbishop's 2022 Christmas message which centers on true meaning of Christ's birth to our lives, our families, our archdiocese and indeed our country, Canada. He said, among other things, "What is Christmas really all about? The "busyness" of our lives can easily overwhelm us and steer us off course. So, in what space will we be when Christmas arrives." See the bulletin insert for the full text of the Archbishop's message.

The OLMM library is now open.

We are excited to welcome our patrons back into the OLMM library. Checkout our new location at the foyer. Please help yourself and browse the new collections.

Thank You

Thank you to everyone who in one way or the other helped the parish this Christmas. A special thanks to all our sacristans, lectors, extraordinary ministers, altar servers, choirs and musicians, decorating committee, ushers, volunteers, parishioners, indeed everyone! Your hard work and dedication is quite appreciated and will never go unrewarded by God. Wishing everyone a Merry Christmas and a prosperous 2023.

Fr. Anthony

The office is closed from Thursday, December 29th 2022 to Friday, January 6th, 2023. However, phone and email messages will be checked regularly.

Work of Christmas Begins

When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with the flocks,
Then the work of Christmas begins.
To find the lost,
To heal those broken in spirit,
To feed the hungry,
To release the oppressed,
To rebuild the nations,
To bring peace among all peoples,
To make a little music with the heart...
And to radiate the Light of Christ every day,
In every way, in all that we do and in all that we say,
Then the work of Christmas begins.
