The Epiphany of the Lord

Readings: Is. 60:1-6/Ps. 72: 1-2,7-8,10-11,12-13/Eph 3: 2-3A,5-6/ Mt 2:1-12

The word Epiphany means manifestation. Today we celebrate the feast of God revealing of his glory. Our gospel tells the story of the Magi, the wise men. They followed the star to find the new king. They came bearing gifts of gold (to crown a king), frankincense (to worship God), and myrrh (for healing and also, for anointing a body for burial. Even at Christmas we have a hint of what is to come). What gifts do we bring to our Lord? How do we rise up in splendor for our Lord has come? Instead of gold, frankincense and myrrh, can we bring the best of ourselves? Instead of gold, can we offer our love for our neighbor? For frankincense, can we offer true worship and lift up our prayers like incense? And instead of myrrh, can we bring comfort to those in need? Can we see Christ in the other and bring the light of Christ to a dark winter world?

Intentions of the Holy Father for January

For prayer with the Word of God

Let us pray that praying with the Word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.

ST. THOMAS AQUINAS
CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

I would like to thank the parishioners of OLMM for bringing light and hope to families in need this Christmas through the Christmas Angel program at STA. With the help of your generosity, we were able to donate $9,000 in gift cards to families in our community, helping them buy food and gifts for their family during this season of hope and joy. Your kindness has made a difference! God bless you, and Merry Christmas from all of us at St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic High School. – Chris Vonesch
