26TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR A

Readings: Ez 18:25-28/PH 2:1-11/Mt 21:28.32

Actions speak louder than words. Jesus tells of two sons: one initially refuses his father but later changes his mind and obeys, while the other says yes but does not follow through. True obedience is shown not simply by what we say, but by how we live.

God looks at our hearts and choices. It is not enough to say we believe—we are called to live our faith. When we turn away from sin, admit our mistakes, and choose what is right, God welcomes us with mercy and love. Through repentance, we find renewed hope, peace, and joy in His presence.
