29TH SUNDAY

IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR A

Readings: Is 45:1, 4-6/1 Thes 1:1-5b/Mt 22: 15-2

“Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.”

The coin bears Caesar’s image, but we are created in the image and likeness of God. Through Baptism, we are clothed with Christ and called to reflect His love in our lives. What, then, do we owe God? We owe Him our very selves—our hearts, minds, souls, and strength. Do we give God our best, or only what is left over? Do we pray and attend Mass with love, or merely out of habit and convenience?

This week, let us be grateful for the dignity God has given us and strive to recognize the image of Christ in everyone we meet.

30TH SUNDAY

IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR A

Readings: Ez 22:20-26/1 Thes 1:5c-10/Mt 22:34-40

The 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time reminds us that the heart of our faith is to love God with all our heart and to love our neighbour as ourselves. Jesus teaches that these two commandments guide all our actions and relationships. The readings remind us that love must go beyond words and be expressed through kindness, justice, and compassion, especially toward those who are vulnerable or in need. Like the Thessalonians, we are called to follow Christ with joy and remain faithful even in difficult times. This Sunday invites us to reflect on whether our choices truly reflect God’s love, for when we love God sincerely, that love naturally flows into how we treat others.

Intentions of the Holy Father for October – For mental health ministry

Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

OUR CHURCH STILL HAS NO RUNNING WATER OR HEAT.

Due to damaged pipes during the boiler installation, the water supply remains shut off while repairs are being arranged. The church washrooms are CLOSED and cannot be used at this time. A portable toilet is available outside the building.

Groups may continue to use the parish hall; however, all groups must take these conditions into consideration and plan accordingly. Please ensure that all participants are informed that there is no running water, heat, or indoor washroom access.

We understand this situation is inconvenient and appreciate your patience as we work toward resolving these issues. We will provide an update once the water supply and heat have been restored and the washrooms are available for use.

PLEASE NOTE: NO RUNNING WATER, NO HEAT, AND NO USABLE INDOOR WASHROOMS UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE.

Thank you for your patience, understanding, and cooperation.
