Readings: Ez 34:11-12, 15-17/1Cor 15:20-26, 28/Mt 25:31-46

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King, whose kingdom is unlike any earthly kingdom. He is not a ruler who seeks power or glory, but a loving Shepherd who watches over His flock, seeks the lost, and carries the weary and wounded close to His heart.

As followers of Christ, we are called to reflect His love through our own words and actions. In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that whatever we do for the least among us, we do for Him. Our faith is therefore measured not only by what we profess, but also by the compassion, kindness, and mercy we extend to others.

As we come to the close of the liturgical year, may we renew our commitment to follow Christ, our Shepherd and King. May His love guide our hearts, strengthen our faith, and inspire us to serve one another with humility and compassion, so that through our lives, His kingdom of love and peace may be made present in the world.

Intentions of the Holy Father for November – For the proper use of wealth

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service, the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

OLMM – Disciple Maker Index (DMI) Survey Beginning December 1

OLMM is on a journey to know, love, and serve Christ in our parish community. Together, we are called to embrace Christ's vision of missionary discipleship and make our parish a place where faith can grow and flourish.

Beginning December 1, we invite all parishioners to participate in the Disciple Maker Index (DMI), a brief 10–15-minute survey. It is an opportunity to reflect on your own spiritual growth and share how our parish is helping you grow in your relationship with Christ.

All responses are confidential, and the parish will receive only information about the community as a whole, not individual responses.

The survey link will be shared closer to the launch date. Paper copies will also be available for those unable to complete the survey online.

Your voice matters! We encourage everyone to participate. Your feedback will help guide our parish as we continue to grow in faith and become a stronger community of missionary disciples.

CHURCH DECORATIONS & FLOWERS

The deadline for envelopes to be in is DECEMBER 13TH. Thank you!
